

CREDIT AGING

As long as a student remains in continuous enrollment, he or she may graduate by meeting the requirements of the catalog in effect at the time of entrance to the University. Continuous enrollment is defined as successful completion of at least three credits per semester at the University of Providence, fall, and spring. Summer semester is not required under the Continuous Enrollment Policy. If enrollment is not continuous, a student is bound by the requirements of the current catalog. No graduate credit, from either the University of Providence or a transfer university, older than 6 years at the time of graduation, may be used to fulfill graduate degree requirements.
