

REPEATED COURSES

Students may repeat any Graduate level course. Federal Student Aid regulations govern a student's ability to repeat coursework. Students may repeat a course as many times as needed until the course is passed and receive Title IV funding. However, once a student has earned credit in a course (grade of 'D' or higher), they may receive funding to repeat the course only once. This even applies to students who are required to achieve a minimum grade as indicated by their major.

This does not include courses that are designated as repeatable (i.e. Internships, Special Topics courses, Practicums, etc).
