

STUDENT CREDIT LOAD

During the fall and spring semesters, the maximum undergraduate student credit load is eighteen credits per semester, and any student taking at least twelve credits is regarded as a full-time student. Students taking 9-11 credits are considered three-quarter time students and those taking 6-8 are half-time. Permission to exceed the maximum load at any time must come from the student's advisor and the applicable Department Chair or Division Chair and an Overload Request Form must be submitted. Students who are on academic probation are restricted to a maximum of 15 credits until they regain good academic standing.
